Gov. Branstad names Dale Woolery interim director of ODCP

(DES MOINES) – Gov. Terry Branstad today named Dale Woolery the interim director of the Governor's Office of Drug Control Policy (ODCP). Woolery's appointment comes after the former director, Mark Schouten, replaced Brig. Gen. Derek Hill at Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Division (HSEMD). Schouten begins his new role as HSEMD Administrator today.

Woolery has worked in ODCP for 17 years, most recently serving as Associate Director.

Gov. Branstad has not set a timeline for naming a new director of ODCP.
